THE MYTH OF FORREST GUMP; a legend revealed

In their ambition to cross the swords with Europe's best long distance fanciers in International monuments, the Freialdenhofen family have always searched for pigeons of extra quality ... when in 2000 they paired up a son of Saya's supercock 'Bonte Marathon' (NL97-2039867 'Max') to a daughter of Van Der Poel's 3. Int. acebird 'De 848' (BE96-2270528) they hoped for a top combination, but could not have imagined the influence their son DV06348-00-789 would have on International pigeon racing ...

As youngster he was raced up to 110 km, as yearling his baptism of fire followed on the International race from Marseille. Directly he won 12. Nat. Marseille. "It was the confirmation of what we expected," Heiko says. "The 789, now known as 'Forrest Gump', was a cockbird with great eye for territory. His nestbox was on the bottom row, however he always searched for perches on high positions. It was his motivation!"

After he was co-winner of the 1. Nat. championships in 2001, 2002 and 2003, he was raced one more year. In 2004, on the race of Perpignan, he was the only pigeon in wide surroundings to make in home on liberation day. He won 1. Zone with over 3 hours lead. He must have raced alone for the greatest part of his journey; an quality Freialdenhofen & Sons always look for in a pigeon. To do the impossible so to say, just like Forrest Gump does time and time again in the movie with the same name. The pigeon 'Forrest Gump' managed to return home from an International classic on liberation day three times!! Following his own course, determined and motivated.

By than breeding qualities of 'Forrest Gump' were already extremely promising. In 2001, his first eggs as yearling went to Willy Lauer and offspring won 2x 1. & 1x 2. Nat. ace hen marathon. With several different hens 'Forrest Gump' bred toppers, 2002 born youngsters were already co-winners of the 1. Nat. championships Int. races in 2003.

Sensational was his breeding quality in many generations and his vitality up to a high age!
